

GREATER TALLAHASSEE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

LEADS GROUPS

BYLAWS

ARTICLE I: NAME & OWNERSHIP

The name of each group shall be: Leads Group (#). The number shall be assigned by the Tallahassee Chamber of Commerce (hereinafter referred to as "Chamber"). The Leads Group name and all materials with the Leads Group designation are property of the Chamber. The use of the Chamber logo or materials must be approved by the before use. All Leads Groups are considered an entity of the Chamber and all Leads Groups must agree to the policies and procedures of the Chamber.

ARTICLE II: ADDRESS

Each group will have a designated location determined by a majority vote of its members for the meetings. Leads group meeting locations must be current Chamber members. If the business refuses to join the chamber or does not renew their membership, the group has 90 days to find a new location. The Leads Group may meet at other locations, from time to time, as designated by its members and must notify the Chamber in advance and post the location change on their website and any social media. The group may also have a separate mailing address from its meeting address.

ARTICLE III: PURPOSE

Chamber Leads Groups provide opportunities for its members to connect with other businesses and business leaders within the community.

The purpose of the Leads Groups:

- A. Build relationships - by sharing in activities that best promote networking and lead exchanging for the benefit of its members (i.e. business to business meetings and business card exchanges)
- B. Share best business practices – by sharing experiences and mentoring one another to encourage business growth and professional development
- C. Generate referrals - by implementing and maintaining a method and tracking system for exchanging business leads between members

ARTICLE IV: CODE OF ETHICS

- a. To uphold the highest level of professionalism.
- b. To operate business with truth and integrity.
- c. To consider customers' needs foremost.
- d. To advise customers accurately, truthfully and honestly.
- e. To respond promptly to all referrals.
- f. To cooperate in a good business spirit with fellow Chamber Leads Group members.
- g. To abide by the covenants set forth by the Leads Advisory Council.

ARTICLE V: MEMBERSHIP

All Leads Group members and prospective members must be a current member in good standing with the Chamber. Chamber member "companies" hold the memberships, not the attending representatives. The member company is responsible for designating a company representative to attend and adhere to the Leads Group bylaws.

Members of each Leads Group shall represent different trade, industries and professions within the Leads Group such that there will not be any conflicting or competing interests within a Leads Group. Each member position in a Leads Group shall be exclusive to the current member in good standing within his or her particular trade, industry or profession. Member companies may participate as a member of two leads groups in the Chamber, represented by two different individuals.

Members are discouraged from changing Leads Groups, but may transfer from one Leads Group to another with the prior approval of the Chamber's Director of Membership Retention & Engagement, LAC and the respective Leads Group Chairs. The transferring member loses any dues prepaid to the previous group, must pay normal dues to the new group.

The maximum size for any leads group must not exceed 40 members.

A member cannot be associated with any other organization that restricts their ability to give leads within the Chamber Leads Group Program. A Leads Group member cannot recruit members within the Leads Group Program to join another networking organization outside the Chamber.

Membership Process

1. A prospective member, who is a Chamber member, may visit each Leads Group one time and is required to complete the guest form provided as documentation of their first visit. These forms are then submitted immediately to the Chamber by a Leads Group Officer. If there is not an opening for the prospective member's business category, the prospective member has the option to be placed on the Chamber's Leads Group waiting list or be directed to another Leads Group.
 - a. A non-Chamber member may visit one leads group, one time, and may not visit other leads groups until he or she becomes a Chamber member.

2. New members shall serve on a probationary status for a period of 3 consecutive meetings, after which their retention as a regular Chamber Leads Group member shall be subject to the approval of the Chamber Leads Group. Upon approval of the Chamber Leads Group, the new member will be added to the Chamber Leads Group roster. Final approval of all Chamber Leads Group applicants is provided by the Director of Membership Retention and Engagement. Membership process is as follows:
 - a. On first visit, prospective member completes a guest sheet and returns to Chamber Leads Group Officers.
 - b. On the second consecutive meeting, prospective member receives a Leads Group Application, copy of bylaws and invoice for dues which shall be prorated at the monthly rate only.
 - c. On the third consecutive visit, prospective member submits signed Leads Group application agreeing to the bylaws and dues payment. An application is required to be on file with the Chamber Leads Group Chair and the Director of Membership Retention & Engagement for all members and prospective members. No new applicant will be considered until this document is received.
3. A prospective member that misses a consecutive meeting during the probation period may restart the probation period one time. Upon approval of the Leads Group Officers, the new member will be added to the Leads Group roster.
4. Final approval of all Leads Group applicants is provided by the Chamber's Director of Membership Retention & Engagement as specified by Article 6: Governance.
5. Upon application, new members must pay dues in the amount specified by Article 5: Dues.

ARTICLE VI: DUES

When a Dues Structure is agreed upon by the group, each Chamber Leads Group is responsible for setting the amount of dues to be paid by each member. Each member (and additional company representatives who attend regularly) must pay dues. Dues are to be collected in the following manner:

Quarterly: dues to be paid by the second meeting of each quarter

Annually: a ten percent discount will be given if paid by invoice due date

New member dues paid at any other time shall be prorated at the monthly rate only.

Any member who does not pay their dues by the second meeting of each quarter will be responsible for a $10.00 late fee.

Any member who does not pay their dues by the third meeting of the quarter will be removed from membership in the group.

Monies collected by each Chamber Leads Group will cover costs (applicable to each group's meeting format) such as: copies, printing, promotional items, food, room rental fees and any other expense approved by the Chamber for the benefit of the group. The purchase of alcohol with group funds is prohibited.

Dues shall be reviewed annually and set by the Chamber Leads Group with a majority (50 percent, plus one) vote by members in good standing for the following year. Dues are non-refundable.

ARTICLE VII: GOVERNANCE

Leads Groups shall be governed by the official board of directors of the Chamber. The Leads Group program falls directly under the Membership Department and shall be managed accordingly by the Director of Membership Retention & Engagement. The Director of Membership Retention & Engagement will facilitate a meeting with all the Leads Group Chairs, collectively, at least once a quarter to discuss the groups' productivity, growth, challenges, etc. In addition, the Chamber has formed a Leads Advisory Council (LAC) to assist the groups in carrying out the mission and goals of the Leads Group program.

In the event of an officer vacancy, the Chamber should be immediately notified and will work with the Leads Group and the Leads Advisory Council to appoint a suitable replacement until the next election.

ARTICLE VIII: OFFICER DUTIES

Each Leads Group shall have an Officers' Committee to be comprised of a Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary and Treasurer who shall be elected by a majority vote (50% plus one) of the group's membership in good standing, to serve an annual term from October 1 through September 30. They shall serve until their successors are duly elected and active. These bylaws allow for temporary or permanent chairs and other committees as each Leads Group sees fit. All elected officers will participate on the committee to properly guide the Leads Group.

For those serving as Leads Officers, leads dues will be waived for the term of service; however, if the officer does not comply with the duty requirements, he or she may be removed from office and charged leads group dues for the prior quarter and forward.
